

brings you Hope (A lost Phone)

Ahmad and Sally found a lost phone. Being honest Singaporeans, they want to return the phone. They decide to wait for either the owner to return or call. Murthy, owner of the phone, comes along looking worried. But they need to prove that he is the rightful owner. Murthy starts to reveal the contents in his phone. He has photos with each one telling stories of friendship with different races through team-work and understanding.

Will Ahmad and Sally return the phone? Will they themselves learn the value of friendship? Find out as IADN brings you a story of harmonious friendship, nation-building and its importance.
